

Muktinath Dharshan

A pilgrimage of a life time

Muktinath is a sacred place for both Hindus and Buddhist at 3750 meters at the Annapurna circuit in the Himalayas of Nepal. It is a great example of how two religions can share the same holy spot with mutual respect and support. For this reason, unseen yogis from both religions make pilgrimage of Muktinath. The central meaning of the Muktinath area is the veneration of the god Vishnu in the form of ammonites (shilas) called Salagram. Gandaki river is a few hours walking from Muktinath and also known as the Salagrami. Hinduism and Buddhism belief to visit once time in life to Muktinath cleanse the all sin and easy to get free from 500 Samshara.
